

And Jesus woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again.' Mark 4:39

NEW LECTIONARY FOR MASS AND NEW PEOPLE'S MISSALS

On the first Sunday of Advent 1 December 2024, The Lectionary is changing as part of the continuing process of revising liturgical translations, which began with the Roman Missal in 2011.

The new Lectionary will use both the English Standard Version - Catholic Edition (ESV-CE) of the Bible and the Abbey Psalter for the Psalms. The changes are intended to make the biblical translations more faithful to the original languages, more proclaimable and, where appropriate, more inclusive. Each parish will need to purchase a new Lectionary, which is divided into four volumes, for each church. This four volume Ambo (Lectern) Edition of the Lectionary costs £695 and will be available in October.

Donor Bookplates - Each Lectionary comes with four insertable bookplates, one for each volume for each church, which can be inscribed with the names of those who may wish to sponsor a volume. Anyone wishing to sponsor a volume may do so at a cost of £174 per volume. There is also a Book of the Gospels available to buy, which will complete the set at a cost of £275. Parishioners are invited to consider donating towards this unavoidable cost. Please contact the Parish Office by 10.00am on Tuesday 25 June if you would like to sponsor a volume. Thank you.

People's Missal - As part of this overall update of Liturgical Resources, there will also be People's Sunday Missals available for you to buy. To view these resources please visit www.newlectionary.org or view the brochure available at each church entrance. ### Jen's Weekly Prayer

Unrest, pain, uncertainty, fear and suffering loom like dark clouds across the skyline in many places across the world where light appears dim or burns so harshly it sears the earth.

May your gentle healing hand caress and calm
those whose lives have been ravaged by these events.
May your gentle soothing touch bring them comfort for your touch is gentle yet of enormous strength.

Uncertain weather patterns confuse our natural world and plants struggle, they tackle colder air yet they thrive and survive when they feel the warmth of the sun.

Help us to be like the light of the warm sun as we reach out to support those who are in need and bring them care, compassion, understanding, help and love.

First ReadingJob 3:1. 8-11*

From the heart of tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial PsalmPsalm 106:23-26. 28-31. R/ v.1*

Response: O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

1. Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep.
2. For he spoke; he summoned the gale.
tossing the waves of the sea
up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in their distress.
3. Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed.
4. They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men.

Second ReadingII Corinthians 5:14-17*

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamationcf. Ephesians 1:17,1*

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our mind,
so that we can see what hope his call holds for us.
Alleluia!

GospelMark 4:35-41*

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.

Glorify to you, O Lord.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
